1. Visit: <http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/JTypes2.asp>
2. Answer the 72 Yes/No Questions
 - When you answer the questions, simply go with your “gut reaction”; try not to analyze the responses too much.
3. When you complete the questions click on “Score It”
 - You will then have a page come up similar to below.

Now indicate your four letters scores and strength of the preferences % similar to below

I = 22%
S = 1%
F = 88%
J = 1%

Jung Typology Test Indicator results:

Simply write which letter you had indicated from the test

I or E

N or S

T or F

P or J

How strong are you for each type? Write the percentage for each of the types above.

-The higher the percentage the more closely you align with that type. Anything below 25% means you could actually flip between the two types any time, which is very normal throughout a person's life.

I or E

N or S

T or F

P or J

1). For a more detailed description of your personality, type your four letter personality into a search engine followed by personality - for example "ISFJ Personality" and choose the "Portrait of an ISFJ – The Personality Page".

- What are some interesting characteristics about your personality type?

- Are there items you agree with? Disagree with?

- Do you agree this is your personality type all of the time? If not, what changes it?

2). After reading about your personality, scroll to the bottom of the page and choose “Careers for ISFJ” (your personality type indicator).

- List a few of the jobs that interest you based on your personality:

3). Are you more like Rosa Parks, Gandhi, JFK, or Napoleon?

Type in your personality type followed by famous people – “ISFJ Famous People” for example

- What do you notice about the list?

- Are there similarities amongst those people shown? If so, what?

- Is there anyone you can relate with and why?

- Do you not know who some people are and do any of them seem intriguing?

Career Assessment

Visit www.mi-car.org (You will be redirected to www.headed2.com, this is fine)

Please type the career you would like to learn more about in the Search field on the homepage -

*For the ISFJ example I used Social Worker

Let's look at your possible career some more.

The image shows a detailed view of the 'Mental Health and Substance Abuse Social Workers' page. On the left, there's a sidebar with a 'Your Rating' section (5 stars), a 'Compatibility' section (not enough data), and buttons for 'Create a Budget', 'Create a Plan', and 'Find Job Openings'. A large blue arrow points from the left towards the main content area. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'About the Job' (describing the role), 'It is also Called' (listing various job titles like Addictions Counselor, Case Manager, etc.), 'What They Do' (describing the tasks), 'Education Required' (stating that most occupations require graduate school), and 'LMI Region' (showing a dropdown for 'Michigan' and a 'Change Location' button). A large blue arrow points from the right towards the 'Education Required' section. Another large blue arrow points from the bottom right towards the 'Wages' section, which shows the average annual wage in Michigan was $43,690 in 2012.

Basic Questions you need to ask yourself are:

- What career did you choose? _____

- What are the education requirements for this career? Do you want to go to school that long?

- What is the wage scale for this career? _____
- Does this job seem to fit your personality and why?

- What is the job outlook? Will there be careers in this field in the future? (scroll further down the page) What does this mean?

- Do the “Things They Need to Be Able to Do” fit with what you are good at? (near the bottom of the page) Does this fit who you are? Why or why not?

Budget Your Future

The solid arrow on the career overview leads to “Create a Budget” – use this as a guide to see if your potential career will fit your life style

- Think of the budget as a high school/college graduate and maybe as an adult who is 30.

What age were you planning this budget for? (i.e. now, college student, out of college)

What county did you plan this wage for? (You can only choose counties in Michigan, so if you plan to live in a city even elsewhere, choose Kent County, which is Grand Rapids for example.)

- What is the expected Annual Salary? _____

After choosing your life style choices you will see the following estimates at the end:

- What is the expected Monthly Earnings? _____
- What is your expected Monthly Spending? _____
- Do your career wages fulfill your life style goals? YES NO
 - If YES, what are ways you can make your life even more comfortable in the future?

 - If NO, what are changes you could make to lower your spending to compensate for your earnings?
